LINCOLNIAN

Ken,

Well I don't know you very well, but its been fun having you in roll room this year. Be good and have fun this summer. Will see you next year.

Laura Luchie

Ken;

It sure has been fun having you in sixth period this year. I really didn't get to know you last year but I am sure glad that I got to know you this year. It is sure going to be a blast when we get our band going next year, "Un-Reasonables," and when we get to play around Tacoma it sure will be a blast. I hope I have you in some of my classes next year then we can talk to each other like we did this year. Good luck with Norma and I hope you get her phone number. I have ran out of space so better go.

Good Luck a friend always

Additional Vice-Principal and Faculty

MR. HAL BERNDT
Principal

MR. ELDROY WOLDSETH
Vice Principal

MR. OLIVER MAGNUSON
Vice Principal

Mr. Oliver Magnuson moved from a faculty position to assistant principal in a significant administrative change during the 1966 term. Also realigning the faculty was the addition of 18 new teachers. This was the first year at Lincoln for Ed Armstrong, Phys Ed; Ron Billings, History; Donna Burnett, English; Wayne Dalesky, History; Russell Goff, Language; Doyle Hill, Shop; George Hyland, Dept. Head, Language; Vic Jowders, Instrumental; Jack Newhart, History; Kay Niewold, Language; Jerry Rabdau, Math; Juan Remos, Language; Dan Watson, Science; Jim White, Business; Louis Williams, DVR; and Connie Yost, Language.

Retirement of two teachers and the resignation of two counselors were regretfully noted by the faculty. Miss Helen Pangborn, Home Economics department head, and Mrs. Ruth Wilson retired knowing a generation of Lincoln students appreciate contributions of such teachers. Also leaving was Mrs. Helen Feutz, long-time Lincoln teacher and counselor who moved to college counselling at Seattle Community College. Her co-counselor, Charles LeSuer, accepted a position in California.

Absent during the year on sabbatical was Miss Nancy Glaser who followed the highways of Mexico and Central America.

Clerical personnel who cheerfully assisted many faculty the past six years before retiring this year were Brenda Elmore and Nancy Witter. They were replaced by Janet Nicols and Dorcas Nyland.

The year's chronicle noted that faculty continued to contribute their talents beyond the classroom. Jack Robinson served on the evaluation team of the N.W. Association of Secondary Schools. Mrs. Athlyeen Nicholson was appointed by Governor Evans to the Urban Affairs Coordination Committee. And sharing his science techniques was Royal Leach who authored a chemistry text for national publication.

Officers, Students Initiate Successful School Year

For the class of '66, spring brought an end to a successful and fun-filled three years of high school. The senior year proved to be a busy one for the upperclassmen.

Two winter projects — a wrapping paper sale and announcements sale — reaped profits for the class treasury. The senior class play, entitled 'Blithe Spirit' ran two successful nights March 17-18. May 22 set the date for the traditional senior day at A & W. Swamped with business, the seniors took charge of the drive in from 11:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. 'Moments Like This' was chosen as the theme for the Senior Ball. The Crystal Ballroom was the setting for the April 23 highlight event.

June 6 marked the end of the high school years for the class of '66. After commencement, an all night cruise was held for the graduates. The next morning, breakfast was served at the Towers.

Through their work and many activities, the seniors proved that . . . 'Never again will there exist a better class than '66!'

Junior Officers Lead Lincoln's Largest

The Class of "67" promoted an active and purposeful year for '65-'66.

In October they began their activities by sponsoring "Junior Jive," a dance after the Lincoln-Bellarmine game. After a 33-0 win, the enthusiastic Abes danced to the music of the Aladins and helped add $140 to the junior treasury.

Throughout the year juniors raised money by selling class pins, candy canes at Christmas and cakes and cookies at bake sales. This year they initiated a new project of selling slaves. After the slave had been bought for fifty cents, he had to be of service to the owner for one day. Mrs. Yost and Mr. Gale supervised these money making projects.

Among annual events were National Merit Tests, Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Tests, and polishing of trophies. In February they went to a college conference at Pacific Lutheran University to learn and discuss requirements, offered courses, and activities of various colleges and universities. Their annual one act play, "Nobody Sleeps," brought many laughs to the audience.

At Christmas the juniors wanted to do something for Axel Bartch, the exchange student from Berlin. He was given a telephone call home on Christmas day.

On May 7, the junior prom, supervised by co-chairmen, Linda Mauck and Dennis McBreen, ended an active year. The music of the Starlighters filled the nautical scene set by "Silhouettes of the Sea."

The 601 juniors will always look back on this year with pleasant memories.

We're the Class That's Really Great

Sophomores came to Lincoln with the initiative to earn money for their treasury.

They began the year with projects consisting of doughnut sales at the games, car washings, and taking pictures of students on Santa's lap. They also held a dance the Friday before spring vacation.

With the help of Mrs. Engelland and Mr. Coe, the advisors, the sophomore class made their first year at Lincoln a success.

Mr. Coe said the officers did a wonderful job in leading their class to the high potential they have reached.

Gym is decorated April 4th for sophomore dance.

ACTIVITIES

Mr. and Miss Pep—Rick Ramseth and Sue Hansen.

Traditional kings and queens added a gala atmosphere to three major dances this year. The courts included royalty for the P.T.A., Activity, and Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner dances. The P.T.A. and Activity Courts were chosen from the sophomore, junior, and senior homerooms with the highest percentage of P.T.A. membership card and activity ticket sales. Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner were chosen from L.L.L. and Lettermen's Club. The royalty were welcomed at the dances by greeting-aisles of admiring students.

Mr. and Miss Pep, Rick Ramseth and Sue Hansen, were chosen from the student body for obtaining the most BEAT STADIUM footballs on Pep Day. They were introduced and crowned at a pep assembly.

Activity Court—Soph. Attendant, S. Aynes; Queen Laura Wong; Jr. Attendant, J. Gang; Escorts: B. Owens, D. Brakefield, W. Harvard (missing).

Royalty Reigns at Annual Dances

Li'l Abner and Daisy Mae—Steve Kneedler and Connie Vancil.

P.T.A. Court—Queen Mischel Thorsen, escort F. Tveten, attendants B. Schneider and J. Zatterburg, escorts B. Sem and R. Wright.

A blazing bonfire and a roof-raising hootenanny began our 1965 "Homecoming Harvest." Halls were lined with brightly colored doors for the door decorating contest. Mr. Daleski's homeroom took the honors.

The homecoming dance was attended by a large crowd of former students and Lincolnites. Terry Meisenburg and Carolyn Wehrkamp reigned as Homecoming King and Queen.

On Thanksgiving morning a pep parade of cars bedecked with black and gold streamers and filled with enthusiastic students preceded the long-awaited game. As the Turkey Day Game began, the ashes of the Stadium Tiger covered the bonfire site, while the real Tigers were victorious over the Lincoln team. But the past and present Abes' enthusiasm could not be lost by the unfortunate results of a football game.

Lincoln During Assembly, Feb. 11

At this year's tenth anniversary of Lincoln Week, Governor Daniel Evans honored Lincoln by speaking at the annual assembly. His speech inspired the students to pay homage to the great man for whom our school was named. Other honored guests for Lincoln Day were: Mayor Tollefson, Congressman Tollefson, Rudy and Erling Tollefson, all of whom graduated from Lincoln High.

This year's Lincoln Day chairman, Joyce Wickstrom, did a fine job. Larry Olsen and Jackie Curry were chosen to represent Abe and Mary Lincoln. Other nominees were Carol Strand, Janet Lepore, Dave Larsen, and Larry Johnson. Activities of Lincoln Week included boys carry girls' books, girls carry boys' books, underclassmen carry seniors' books, school color day, and dress-up day.

A new presentation, to gain further interest in our school, was a recitation given by Marshall Vigus and Chuck Thomas concerning the history of our statue.

Under the sponsorship of Girls' Club, homeroom doors were gaily decorated to pay tribute to our great leader.

Daffodil Princess

Lincoln Daffodil Princess candidates, Jackie Curry, Barbara Grabinski, and Janet Keller competed January 13 at the Tacoma Princess Selection at Stadium High School. Janet Keller was selected as Lincoln's 1966 Daffodil Princess. In the months following, Princess Janet attended many functions. She attended a tea at chaperone Mrs. Ellingson's a tea at Washington Natural Gas Company, visited the Elks and Afifi Shrine, and took a trip to Bremerton to visit the Mayor, Naval Shipyard, Navy Hospital, and Bangor Polaries Missile Base. The most memorable evening for Janet was March 11, when the eleven princesses were entertained at the Sherwood Inn. The princesses were made official members of the Land of Daffodils and were given plaques and gold daffodil pins to signify the occasion.

On March 28, at the U.P.S. Fieldhouse a Royal Court was selected from the daffodil princesses representing Tacoma and the Valley area. Although she was not selected for the Royal Court, she represented our school with poise, grace, and beauty.

Student Council started the year with a drive to sell activity tickets. Sales reached 73 per cent which was the highest ever sold at Lincoln. Janet Lepore, finance commissioner, did an outstanding job in promoting the sale. At the climax of the competition, student council sponsored "You've Got a Ticket to Ride," the activity dance, to which Mt. Tahoma was invited.

Another activity on which the student council has done much work is the beautification project. Trees were planted in March between the annex and the building, and benches were made by the shop classes for along the annex.

Lincoln Student Council also hosted the Capital League Leadership Conference where representatives were sent from all the Capital League schools. They discussed various topics that would help form a more effective student body and government. One of the topics discussed was school dance rules and regulations. These rules stand for all the Tacoma public school dances.

The largest social project was Homecoming. Sue Mueller and Tom Healy, co-chairmen, made this Homecoming one to be remembered. The week consisted of several activities such as the Night of One Acts, the Hootenany and the annual burning of the opponent's effigy. Following this event came the homecoming dance with Terry Meisenburg and Carolyn Wehrkamp reigning as King and Queen.

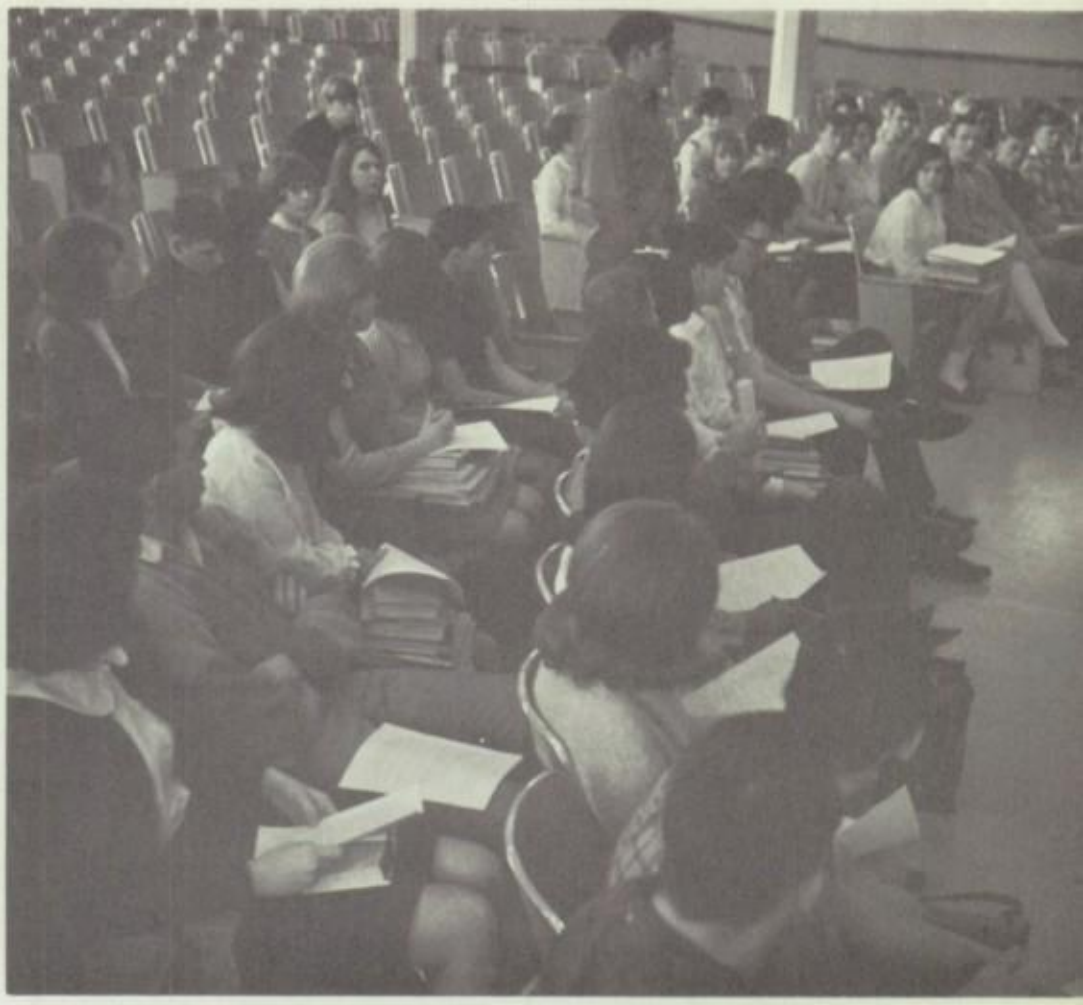
After much decision and controversy, the 1965-1966 Senate finally decided on new house standing rules and adopted them for the coming years.

This year, the Senate has come alive, sometimes with controversy, as with constitutional amendments. It at least arouses interest, something that had been lacking at the beginning of the year.

"The Senate has improved in stature," commented Dave Hartman, ASL Vice President. This is due to the change in meeting times, but is more a result of better organization. The rules and procedure that were adopted this year gave senators a guide as to what they can do as well as how and when to do it. This was badly needed, as evidenced by the lack of initiative on the part of most senators last year.

Some of the actions taken by the Senate were the adjustment of dance prices, certain amendments to the ASL Constitution, the printing of Senate minutes and agenda, and the establishment of an alternate room during assemblies. Senators also made an active study of parliamentary procedure, they participated on the Beautification Committee for Lincoln and finally, on the Lincoln Week Committee.



Richard Sterbenz makes a motion that the meeting be adjourned.

Brings Soccer Trend To Lincoln Abes

This year, Axel, our exchange student from Berlin, formed Lincoln's first soccer club with twenty boys participating. They played games with some of the other soccer clubs in the area and did fairly well in the competition.

To pay for their uniforms, Axel and several of the members of the soccer team sold lollipops to their schoolmates.

Pen-pals were exchanged through the year.

Lincoln's Affiliation Committee sent a Christmas card to Bruce Holm, our exchanger in Berlin, and to the Siemens Schule.

Axel delighted the audience at the Christmas vespers with his rendition of Stille Nacht.

Axel commented that Lincoln was so big, and there were so many people at Lincoln that he had a hard time getting used to it. His school has only 900 students.

"Many people said 'hi' to me on the first day and I think it is very interesting that more girls said 'hi' to me than boys did," said Axel.

Students Work Hard For High GPA

Honor Society is composed of sixty-five students with a three-point or higher grade point average. Sophomores with a three-point or better, and juniors and seniors with a three-point-two GPA are eligible for this organization.

The Honor Society's major money-making project was the selling of school pictures to the sophomores and juniors. The society used this money and dues money to sponsor a representative to Girls' State, buy Affiliation stock, award a $100 scholarship to a deserving senior, and provide awards for those who render service and show enthusiasm for scholarships.

The highest honor of this club is Torch Pin. This honor is obtained by working a certain number of hours for teachers, selling bus tickets, and working in the library.

Joe Rouse, president; John Finstuen, vice-president; Marcene Hals, secretary; Carol Strand, assistant secretary; and Leo Emerson, treasurer; officers of this year's club worked together with Miss Ethel Brinegar, the Society's advisor.

The society's activities reached a climax at the annual Awards Banquet held in May. In addition to presenting the awards, next year's officers were announced at the banquet.

The receiving of a Torch Pin is a great honor to any student. It is the emblem of and signifies membership in the National Honor Society for secondary leadership and character. To receive this pin you must be a senior and meet certain requirements. Such requirements are: You must have four service credits (equal to 35 hours of work). You must have a cumulative gradepoint average of 3.2, and you must be an active member of Honor Society for at least three semesters.

The Torch Pins were awarded at an Honor Society meeting late in April, then taken back and re-awarded at the final Senior assembly.

Mrs. Brinegar is the advisor of Honor Society and Torch Pin.

Sarah Magellson earns torch pin points by selling bus tickets.

Pep Club Helps In Promoting Spirit

Spirited Lincoln students pack the stands at U.P.S. to cheer for the mighty Abes.

Energetic Pep Club members decorate goal posts.

Pep Club membership zoomed from forty students in 1964 to about two hundred students this year. The active Pep Club, led by Cathy Annis, encouraged large attendance at the games by selling pep ribbons, Lincoln buttons, painting pep signs, and decorating goal posts. The Pep Club organized two spirited pep parades—one for the Turkey Day Game and one for the Grid-Go-Round. Twenty-five carloads of excited, screaming students got the two biggest games of the year off to a good start.

Pep Club also sponsored a Pep Day on October 29, the day of the big game with Stadium. At the end of the day, Sue Hanson and Rick Ramseth were declared Mr. and Miss Pep.

Serving Lincoln Is

The year 1966 began with many activities. Girls' Club entertained the Girls' Clubs of other high schools in the area and with the help of Boys' Club, Girls' Club sponsored a "Sock dance." The remainder of the year activities included the Teacher's Tea in February, the rummage sale in March, a spring fashion show in April, and election and installation of the new Girls' Club cabinet in May.

With a hardworking cabinet, the support of Lincoln girls, and the experienced advice of Mrs. Halsey and Mrs. V. Smith, Girls' Club looks back upon a very successful and enriching year.

Abe-Ettes is Lincoln's Girls' Honorary and is closely associated with Girls' Club. It is a club for girls who have earned the 25 points necessary for membership by working on various Girls' Club activities. Initiation are held in October and February.

In the fall, they helped put on the Girls' Club tolo, Carroussel, and decorated the halls for Christmas. When January came around, they entertained the members of girls' honoraries of other high schools. In spring they sold daffodils, Booster buttons and helped with the rummage sale. Finally they rounded off the year with the election of officers and a beautiful installation ceremony.

This year, Lettermen kept students out of the halls during lunches, ushered and kept spectators off the field during football games. The Lettermen also presented the first annual Lettermen's Club Follies. Most of the acts were presented by members of the club. They hope to make the Follies a traditional event at Lincoln.

In 1965 and 1966, the Boys' Club, with Gary Diel as president, organized many activities and served Lincoln well. The Boys' Club sponsored the Howdy Dance and the Student-Faculty game, helped prepare and deliver twenty-five Thanksgiving Day baskets, collected money for the Christmas fund, and helped organize and present the Thanksgiving Day assembly.

Key Club Plays Santa At Tayet

Eddie Yoon plays Santa at Tayet School.

Busy Key Club members, with Gary Buckholtz as Pres., organized and took part in many activities this year. They sponsored our annual Howdy Dance and a Dog Show at the Tacoma Armory. During Thanksgiving, Key Club worked with other clubs to help needy families by donating food and money. For the Homecoming Game, Key Club made the tiger that was burned in effigy, guarded the bonfire, and were in charge of lighting it.

During Christmas they helped needy families and held a Christmas program at Tayet School. Eddie Yoon played Santa Claus. As a result of these many activities, Key Club proved to have a very successful year.

Usherettes Keep Things Running Smoothly

Two eager usherettes show lost parent to class room.

The Usherettes Club is a service organization which serves the students of Lincoln as well as their parents and other adults who attend the various functions of the school.

The Turkey Day Game, the Night of One Acts, the Winter Concert, the Lincoln Day Assembly, and the Senior Class Play are only a few of the functions at which they usher. They also usher bewildered parents to various classrooms on Back to School Night.

Various money making projects they have performed are a few bake sales which have been held at school and also at the different banks in this area.

In honor of their advisor, Mrs. Melquist, and to the usherettes, there is an annual banquet in the spring. Many ushers will receive their pins at this.

This year has been a very successful one for the Debate club. The high point of the year's activities was when Lon Hals won first place in interpretive reading, and Carlton Lewis won second place in oration at the city tournament. Along with the city tournaments, the club also attended U.P.S. and P.L.U. tournaments.

Under the direction of Dr. Robinson and Mr. Robinson, a student advisor from U.P.S., the club members made much progress in the skills of debating and in extemporaneous speaking, oratory, interpretive reading, and impromptu speaking.

As a result of their experience in debate, the members gained insight in the principles of debate, and at the same time, enjoyed participating in practices and interscholastic competition.

Ranking as the second largest club in Lincoln, Ski Club experienced the largest membership in its history. Some of the members had never been on skis before, but the better skiers worked to get everyone proficient during the season.

Opening the season in mid-December, the club chartered a bus to Crystal Mountain. The lack of snow caused many skis to come back with deep gashes on the bottoms. Also, several members received sprined fingers and ankles on this trip.

Following tradition, the annual overnight trip, which is the highlight of the year, was held in February at Packwood. The members enjoyed two joyful days of skiing at White Pass and one evening of fun-filled activities.

The Daffodil Parade is the main event of the school year for the El Charro Horsemen's Club. Before the parade, hard working members earned funds to buy daffodils and other necessary items to make their showing better than ever. To earn these funds, according to Sandra Woolery, President, bake sales and car washes were held.

During Christmas, El Charro members went caroling on horseback in the Elk Plain-Spanaway district. The horses were decorated with bells and wore Santa hats.

Even though the members worked vigorously this year, they still found time to go on a few leisurely rides at B&B Riding Academy.

Future Nurses Strive For Knowledge Of Coming Occupations

Carol Steen starts operation on Eddie Yoon in Future Nurses skit.

From all three classes, twenty-four girls composed the Future Nurses Club of Lincoln. This club meets on the second and four Friday of each month.

On December 18, the F.N.C. held a work party in the basement of the Calvary Methodist Church. They made marshmallow snowmen with red dunce caps in an assembly-line fashion. These colorful snowmen made their debut on the dinner trays of the patients at the Clearview Nursing Home on Christmas day.

In early February, the club took a trip to the open house at the University of Washington Hospital. They also visited Buckley and Western State Hospital.

The Future Nurses do volunteer work at the Clearview Nursing Home. They change the patients water pitchers, talk and laugh with them, and help feed some patients. The patients welcome them readily and the home is filled with warmth and friendliness. After thirty days of work, the volunteers are given blue uniforms to wear. The work is very rewarding and worthwhile. Also, after working there 50 hours, they receive a 50-hour pin.

F. T. A. Looks Over Classroom Career

F.T.A. Holds Annual Tea For Faculty.

The Future Teachers of America is a professional club. This year the members have actively explored the many field of teaching, such as grade school, junior high, high school, and college. They have heard several speakers talk on the teaching profession, and also observed classes to gain the knowledge of class room procedure. During the second semester, the members participated in a project that had them assigned to primary teachers. This project was designed to help the teachers and students. It also gave the participating members a new insight into the qualities and qualifications necessary to make a good primary teacher.

Besides learning about teaching, the members held the annual Founders Tea in February for teachers and honored guests. As the Christmas project this year, the members made and sold candles and swags.

The D.E. class was taught to meet customers with confidence, to get along with employers, to manage jobs efficiently, to set up displays and to understand the advertising procedures of different businesses.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Doerner, the D.E. class took various field trips throughout the year, decorated the showcases on the third and fourth floor halls, and invited Stadium D.E. students to come to Lincoln to discuss the techniques of selling.

Distributive Education students, looking to the business world, realized the value and importance of knowledge gained in their D.E. class.

Abes Majorettes And Band Majors

Head Band Major: Jose Miller

With the help of the drum majors, José Miller and Carl Factory, this year's band performed skillfully during half-time in football season and at the Daffodil Parade. Up bright and early on practice days, the majorettes, Karen Weber and Connie Sheer, along with the band and Marcetta Ki, practiced to achieve their precision form. Head drum major, José Miller, conducted the pep band at Lincoln's pep assemblies.

Lincoln students are proud of these students who have provided the leadership to make our half-times and pep assemblies colorful and enjoyable.

Orchestra Participates In Concerts

Orchestra practices daily for concerts.

The Lincoln Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Victor Jowders, rehearsed daily to prepare for concerts given during the year. Selections were played in the Fall Concert, Christmas Vespers, Winter Concert, Pop Concert, Spring Formal Concert, and several school assemblies. This year, for the first time, the orchestra made trips to surrounding elementary schools to give concerts and promote the interests of students who might later join Lincoln's high-rated orchestra. The officers for the year were president, Marilyn Emery; vice-president, Lynda Brown; secretary-treasurer, Bev Hansen; and librarian, Kaye Shull.

The Senior Choir started early in the summer to raise money for the choir fund. A taffy sale, dance, and car washes were held. The money was earned for a trip to Berlin which had to be cancelled. A parents' council was formed to advise the choir on dress and to act as chaperones.

Many outstanding soloists rated highly at the solo and ensemble contest at New Port High. Three piano sololists received superior ratings. In December the choir gave a program at Western State Hospital and Christmas Vespers at Lincoln.

During February six choir members traveled to Spokane to participate in the All-State Choir. The choir received excellent ratings in a contest at Maple Valley. In the spring, exchange assemblies were held with Stadium and Raymond.

Officers for the year were Barbara Grabinski, president; Steve Bradford, vice president; Ruth Jewett, secretary; and Connie Sheer, treasurer.

Swing Choir, a group selected from the Senior Choir, entertained at assemblies and P.T.A. meetings. The group performed at many community functions, including the Daffodil Princess selection.

Both choirs represented Lincoln throughout the state. Superior ratings received in contests brought honor to Lincoln.

"Blithe Spirit"

"Blithe Spirit" by Noel Coward was presented by the Senior Class. The ingenious plot tells how novelist Charles Condomine invites into his home a lady medium in order to learn the language of the occult. Little does Charles or his wife, Ruth, dream that the seance staged by the medium will summon back Charles' first wife, Elvira, now "passed over" for seven years. The first wife has a ghostly plot in mind. If she can get Charles into an automobile accident and make him a ghost, life in the spirit world will have more appeal for her.

The play moves on and Elvira's plot to kill her husband has gone astray. Ruth is the one who takes the fatal automobile ride and "passes on" only to return with the first wife to plague the bewildered Charles.

How Charles manages to extricate himself from these two very blithe spirits makes a hilarious conclusion to the play. As Madame Arcati said, "There are more things in heaven and earth than are dreamt of in our philosophy."

"I fully sympathize with you, Mr. Condomine."

Lincoln News Wins

Under the direction of Joe Contris, this year's Lincoln News Staff was headed by Russ Brubaker, editor-in-chief. His main duties were assigning stories, the front page and "keeping the class in order."

Other staff members included Tom Furin, associate editor; Julie Vanek and Georgina Triplett, feature editors; Greg Telling and John O'Malley, sports editors; Lois Scott, exchange editor; and Marshall Vigus, photographer. The reporters were Donna Mahoskey, Joy Burgin, Lynn DesChane, Judy Baughn, Layne Harding, Barbara Harold, and Tim O'Grady.

The staff sometimes stayed as late as 9:00 on Wednesday evenings writing headlines, making up the pages, finishing stories and writing cutlines. When this was finished, the paper was "put to bed." Every Thursday the editors went to Star Printing to proofread and make adjustments on the paper.

New and Different Annual Planned

For Year of '66

This year's 1966 Lincolnian Staff, under the direction of Mr. William Sullivan and Editor Sue Strobel, started gathering ideas in September for a new and different annual. Some of the staff attended a journalism conference at the University of Washington. From the conference staffers learned various and modern techniques of assembling an annual.

The first project to be completed by the Lincolnian Staff was the Dial Book. Under the direction of Elsie Schanzenbach, the Dial Books were prepared and went on sale in November. The books help to finance the Lincolnian.

The staff worked hard to have the annual prepared by the late April deadline date. The pictures were scheduled, taken, cropped, pasted up, and finally sent to the printer. Outstanding features of the 1966 Lincolnian were the different page texture, combinations of vivid colors on the cover, and the theme of Lincoln Life throughout the book.

The staff hopes that Lincoln students will cherish their annuals and refer to them in the future to recall the days they spent at Lincoln.

Sue Strobel, Lincolnian Editor, struggles with camera equipment.

Larry Stemp, John Karlinsy, and Linda Mauck do paste-ups on final layouts.

Ken,

I've enjoyed having you as a neighbor & in homeroom this year. You're really nice & do have a good personality. (Sort of quiet at times). I wish you all the luck in the world in the next 2 years to come & the rest of your life. May all your wishes & dreams come true!

Have a good summer & week ahead

God bless you always.

Bye. . . .

Love ya,

A friend always

Inspirational Awards winners this year were Terry Meisenburg, basketball; Jim Harvey, football; Greg Roesell, wrestling, and Steve Kneedler, swimming.

The Lincoln athletic staff change significantly in 1966 with the addition of eight new members. First year men were Ron Billings, basketball; Wayne Dalesky, assistant basketball and head tennis; Jim White, swimming; Doyle Hill, assistant in baseball and swimming; Ed Armstrong, wrestling, soph football and P.E.; Jack Newhart, assistant in football and track; Dan Watson, track and cross-country; and Dean Christian, rifle team.

Veteran staffers who continued the tradition of Lincoln sports excellence were John Fadness, athletic director; Norm Mayer, football and golf; Jack Murphy, baseball; and Bill Mullen, P.E. Also bolstering the staff were Phil Yant, assistant in football and wrestling; Ed Bowman, intramurals; Gary Gale, soph football; and trainer, Don Christian.

Girls' sport activities were handled by Mrs. Vivian Sterling, Aqua Maids and tennis; Mrs. Rose Barden, swimming and LLL; and Miss Baker, Girls' P.E. and after school sports.

Five Abes Chosen To All-City Team

Coach Norm Mayer talks over defensive move with Dick Brakefield.

Lincoln Abes powered their way to their 39th consecutive participation in the traditional Turkey Day Game. The team's strength was evenly distributed among the five schools in the city. Thus many wins were decided by fumbles, interceptions, and plain luck.

The Abe front line were all seniors. Four members of the squad were selected to be on the all city squad: Jim Harvey, Roger Ostwalt, Eddie Yoon, and Gerald Montgomery. The selections were a fitting reward for those who put forth the extra effort and desire. Jim Harvey was the inspirational award winner. He was also chosen the team's co-captain along with Tom Koval. Vernon Washington was awarded the most valuable player trophy. Roger Ostwalt was awarded the Honorary co-captain by the coaches and team members.

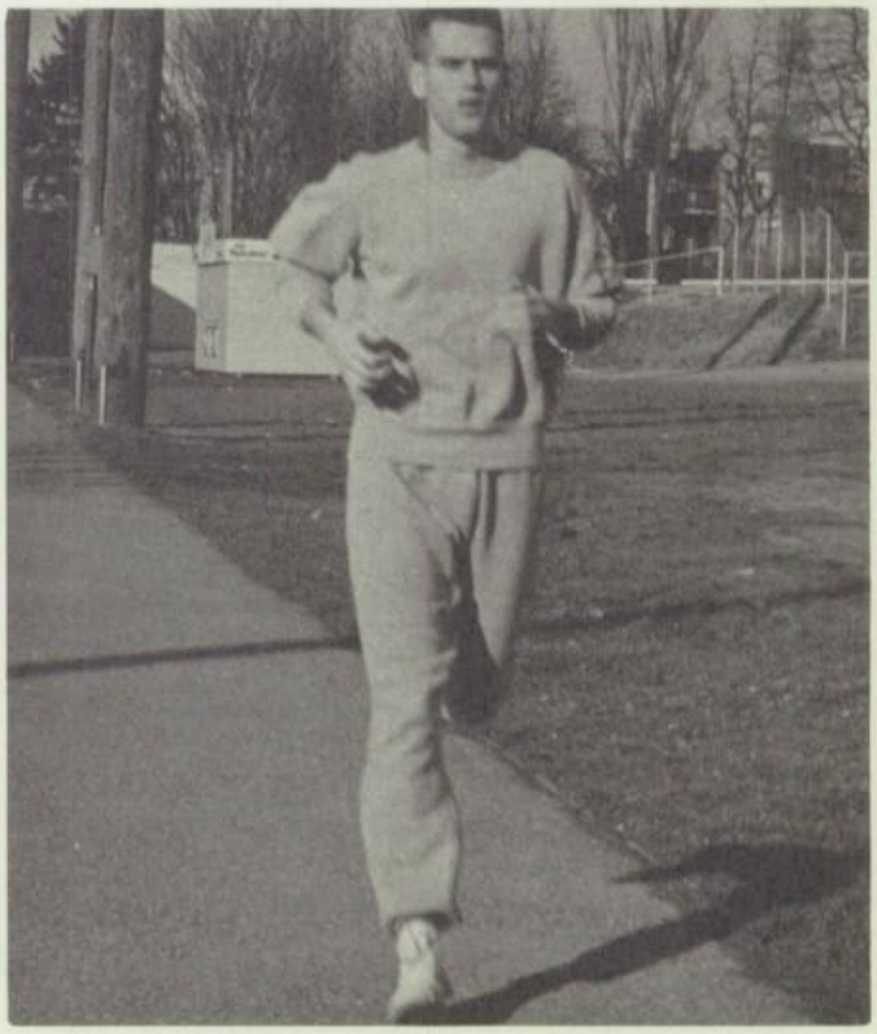
Crosscountry Team Sends Six To State

Cross country was revived at Lincoln High School in 1965 under the leadership of a new coach, Mr. Watson. The team gained experience in a series of league meets resulting in the placing of six in the state finals at Seattle. The team members that placed were: seniors, Terry Ferguson, Greg Fulwider; junior, Eddie Baez; and sophomores, Bob Glass, Pat Tyson, and Pat Walsh.

Of importance for next year's meets is that the junior varsity showed great promise. The runners were: Ron Costello, Mike Cook, Joe Fossella, Don Brewer, Ken Wirth, and George Stewart.



Greg Fulwider warms up for All-State meet.

The combination of experienced basketball players, and fine coaching, built one of the best basketball teams Lincoln has ever had. They placed first in both the city and capitol leagues, and finished the season 6th in the state.

The team's outstanding players were seniors Terry Miesenberg, Ron Harrell and Gary Diel; juniors Atto Barcha and Greg Freitag; sophomore Jim Womack along with a strong bench pulled the team through in many clutch positions. Also returning for next year's team are Scott Smith, Tom Patnode, Greg Prince and Gary Carr. Both Harrell and Miesenberg received first team all-city positions for their exceptional play throughout the season. Both coaches, Mr. Billings and Mr. Dalesky, at Lincoln for their first year, proved their ability through the season's success.

The Abe wrestling team this year was mostly sophomores with only a few returning lettermen. All showed great determination and made a fine record under the direction of their coach — Mr. Armstrong.

Mr. Armstrong was a wrestling coach last year at Charles Wright Academy. This is his first year at Lincoln, and his assistant coach was Mr. Yant.

Greg Rossel made an outstanding performance this year as he was only beaten once during the wrestling season.

The 1965-66 Lincoln swimming team was capably led by co-captains Steve Kneedler and Dave Larsen. Each swimmer broke the team standard for the 400 yard free-style, with Steve Kneedler lowering the record to 4:48.1 in a state meet at Seattle.

Highlights of the season included dual-meet victories over Lakeside of Seattle and Puyallup. Phil Antush performed incredibly in the backstroke and along with junior Mike Pitzler, swimming the breaststroke, missed qualifying for the State meet by a small margin. Kim Rasmussen, Rick Ceccanti, Nick Helmer, and Tom McCumsey were consistent point getters. Len Frederick led the divers and placed seventh in the State meet.

With the loss of only four seniors, Coach White looks forward to an important season next year.

This year's tennis team, inspired by a new coach Wayne Dalesky, is potentially one of the best Lincoln has had in years. With the seasoned veterans—seniors Larry Stemp, Dave Larsen and Larry Johnson; junior Greg Frietag, and promising first year men Mike Sacha and Pat Porter, the Lincoln netmen proved to be threats in both the City and Capital Leagues.

Coach Mayer, J. Farmer, M. Robinson, T. Erdman, P. Campbell, S. Kuljis, D. VanWalk, J. Matzen, C. Frost.

This year's golf team showed great promise with four returning lettermen. They were Larry Frost, Steve Koukles, Paul Campbell, and Marv Robinson. These four players were capable of shooting in the low seventies, according to Coach Mayer.

Showing great promise for next year were juniors: Dennis VanWalk, Ron Wright, and John Matzen.

The 1966 track team has several returning lettermen. Dave Cottrell returns in broad jump after a strong second place finish in the city in 1965. Dave Hannity returns in the hurdles and is rated one of the top hurdlers in the state, according to Mr. Watson, track coach.

Distance running is a year round job. The runners must be able to run at least 12 miles to be able to compete with other state high schools.

Several of our trackmen ran many miles per week; Greg Fulwider, Pat Tyson, and Jim Berwold ran up to 70 miles a week. Greg Fulwider has proved to be one of the best milers in the area.

This year is Mr. Watson's first at Lincoln. Last year he was at Baker Junior High and was the track coach there. His assistant is Mr. Newhart.

With the loss of seven starters, Lincoln's varsity baseball team was young and inexperienced, according to head coach, Jack Murphy. Dick Andres and Gary Diel were the only returning lettermen, while George Wolford, Dennis McBreen, Bernie Dunayski, and John Hansen coming up from last year's reserves.

Sophomores played a role on this year's team with four members of their class making varsity. They were Dave Carlisle, Rick Lewis, Joe Kilby, and Ken Cheslik.

Poor weather and lack of facilities were a hinderance to practicing this year but the team made a great showing despite this fact.

"This year's team was small but we had average pitching and hitting and a good defense," says reserve coach Mr. Hill. This year's team had three players returning from the team last year. They were Pat Jonas, Bill Wheeler, and Al Burke. With a good season this year's squad will be a city threat next year.

The squad this year only included 12 men so each man had to be versatile and able to play more than his own position. The team also had great spirit which was never dampened even though they sometimes trailed during the games.

The purpose of Lincoln Letter Lassies, is to further the interest in Girls' Athletics, to promote good sportsmanship, and instill friendliness among the participants of girls' sports.

At the start of football season LLL sold colorful black and gold pom pons. As the year continued, a Sadie Hawkins dance was held. Connie Vancil was voted Daisy May and Steve Kneedler was voted Little Abner. They were voted on by the Lettermen's Club and LLL.

The annual Christmas project, was a Christmas play presented to the St. Ann's Orphanage on December 17.

Potato Chips were sold to hungry Lincolnites at lunch and after school. This was also a money making project.

In addition to the many money making projects, LLL participated in sports days at other schools.

The year was concluded with an awards banquet in May. Those who had earned sufficient points were awarded their letters. Awards were also given to champions in various sports.

Aqua Maids A Swimming Success

Aqua Maids practice swim routines for show.

The Aqua Maids club in 1966 continued to promote an interesting pattern of water skills and techniques. Timing, synchronization, and endurance were the year long practice guides which culminated in the beautiful water ballet in spring.

This girls' activity was trained and directed by Mrs. Vivian Sterling. Officers for 1966, who also assisted in programing the spring water-ballet, "Hollywood Highlights," were Julie Strobel, President; Cherie Branden, Vice President; Sue Mueller, Secretary; and Bev. Schneider, Treasurer. Most of these officers and members Sue Strobel and Ruth Jowett participated in the program the past three years.

Sue Kneedler, Clair Walters, climb out of water after tiring practice.

Aqua Maids, Ruth Jowett and Bev Schneider practice for Show.

Bottom row—S. Rembaugh, P. Newman, C. Carder, C. Walters, C. Branden, B. Schneider, J. Strobel. Row 2—S. Kneedler, W. Parkinson, S. Meddaugh, M. Stewart, S. Barney, R. Jowett, S. Strobel.
